

15th Annual Jeffersonville Celebrating Freedom Parade

Application - July 4, 2018 at 11:00am

The purposes of this parade are to celebrate our freedoms and to remember our men and women who are serving our country to ensure those freedoms. By participating in the parade, you promote your organization, our community and national pride.

Application DEADLINE: June 27, 2018

Start Time and Route: All parade participants will assemble on Riverside Drive at Spring Street at 10am for staging. The parade will start promptly at 11am and will travel north on Spring Street to Federal Avenue, then to Wall Street, where it will end. The judging stand will be located on the corner of Spring Street and Chestnut Street.

Parade Rules: All entries must have an approved application in order to participate -- this includes walking entries, as well as motorized entries. Parade entries may include, but are not limited to, floats, bands, military vehicles, groups, walkers, etc. All entries must provide their own parade vehicle and have a patriotic theme/decorations. Current elected officials and candidates for elected office will provide and ride in their own vehicle. PLACEMENT FOR THESE WILL BE AFTER ALL MILITARY PARTICIPANTS. Any late entry will be placed at the end of the parade by a parade marshal. In the event a unit breaks down, the unit MUST pull over and allow all others to pass. Due to safety concerns, throwing candy (or other objects) is prohibited, however, you may hand out candy/treats.
